

A BRACCIA APERTE ONLUS

“A Braccia Aperte” was founded in September 2005 and developed in different sectors ranging from direct support to families in need to the creation and management of “Parco della Vita” in Cesano Boscone (Mi), from the support and training for volunteers to self-financing through campaigns of recycling of clothes, bicycles plastic caps, corks and aluminum.

“A Braccia Aperte” together with other organizations such as Centro Ambrosiano di Aiuto alla Vita, Cooperativa Sociale Tuttinsieme, A Piccoli Passi Onlus, Fondazione Ambrosiana per la Vita and Pio Istituto di Maternità, has formed a true network of active collaboration rooted in the Milan area.
